OVER 460,000 PER DAY.

"After a thorough examination of the circulation books, from home reports, mail-room reports, paper companies' bills for amount of paper furnished, orders from news companies and newspapers, we find that the circulation of THE WORLD (morning and evening editions) for the months of January and February, 1894, averaged 458,157 copies per day, and so forth."

THOMAS L. JAMES, Secretary.

J. W. HOFFMAN, Treasurer.

CHARLES W. DAYTON, Treasurer.

THE WORLD'S Average Circulation for

March, 1891, 312,570 Per Day.

March, 1893, 403,333 Per Day.

March, 1894, 460,929 Per Day.

A Gain of 57,896 Per Day in One Year.

A Gain of 148,359 Per Day in Three Years.

Cost will be cheaper.

Admiral da Gama is now playing the role of the great escaper.

Capt. Devry is innocent, but you can't make Dr. Parkhurst believe it.

Yesterday the price of coal in New York was $5.25 a ton; to-day it is $4.50.

To-morrow should see the end of Broadway and of Broadwayism at Elmira.

Paderewski has learned the new well-known Pratt trick. He will begin far-welling America next year.

The Rosebery ship came dangerously near to the rocks last night, but a slight change of wind kept her off.

King Humbert says he sees no good reasons why the Italians should engage in war. The gate receipts wouldn't be big enough, he intimates.

Vaccination will do much towards keeping small-pox out of Brooklyn, but that city's cleanliness goes to a great deal more.

There is no doubt that the great political event of yesterday in Republican circles was the speech of Senator D. B. Hill.

The local elections in New Jersey to-day will serve to show which way the wind is blowing, but recently the wind has been blowing all one way, and not our way.

Andrew J. White gave up the position of Police Justice at a salary of $3,000 a year, to become a Dock Commissioner at $5,000. Were no other evidence forthcoming, this fact alone would indicate that more than the salary goes with the office.

Now there is a crisis in Chili. Any time there isn't a crisis concealed somewhere about South America, person look out for an earthquake in Japan, the overflow of the Yang-tse-Kiang or any other always-in-stock bit of foreign information.

President Depew showed a certain natural disinclination to explain the circumstances under which he gave King Croker a pass for his private Pullman palace car, but doubtless the motive of his liberality was the thought that other things would come to pass.

It is to be deplored that the efforts of the Brooklyn Board of Health to stamp out small-pox, meet with such opposition. It became necessary yesterday to call out police reserves to check a riot begun by those opposed to vaccination. What is for the good of the people should be encouraged by the people.

Persons who are looking forward to a bathing in this vicinity during the Summer will be delighted to learn that the garbage scows which usually strew the beach with cabbage leaves and old crinolines, &c., will hereafter dump their contents beyond Sandy Hook Lightship, five miles further than they were wont to do.

William Kaufman, who annoyed a former sweetheart and was shot at by her, has been banished from Staten Island by a Police Justice. It is bad enough for him to carry around a lacerated heart, but it must be awful sad for William to sit in Battery Park and look out towards the sylvan sides of Staten Island's hills, to feel that he will not be able to cavort around South Beach this Summer.

There is no reason to discredit the report that there is cholera in Constantinople, and that the outbreak is marked by extreme virulence. Constantinople is in a way on the other side of Europe.

"RIVAL CANDIDATES."

Money counts for very little in Charles T. Lacey and T. N. Morris's American comic, "Rival Candidates," produced at the Madison Square Theatre last night. The sweet little heroine's lover is unable to meet a $20,000 note, which belongs to her. She instantly tears it up and flings away the pieces with the words, "I don't want the money!" (T. N. Morris.)

AN UNFORTUNATE SPEECH.

The country is suffering severely from the uncertainty attending tariff legislation. Capital is idle, business is stagnant, labor is unemployed, because nobody knows what is to follow the policy twice condemned by the people, and which the Democratic party is pledged to reverse. McKinism was had enough. Suspense is worse.

The people put the Democrats in power in the Executive branch of the Government, in the Senate and in the House in order that the country might be relieved of McKinism at once. The President strongly recommended immediate removal of tariff legislation. The House passed the Wilson bill, becoming promptness. The Senate blocks the way to relief.

While trade is stagnant, while the revenues of the Government are falling off, while labor is unemployed and while the idle workman is driven to the humiliation of seeking aid from charity, a leading Democratic Senator makes a four-hour speech on the tariff bill, utterly attacking the Democratic Administration on its foreign policy, on its Cabinet appointments and on its Hawaiian action, denouncing the proposed income tax as a discrimination against wealth, and saying scarcely a word about the tariff except to seek to embarrass the carefully prepared Wilson bill.

Senator Hill, her disappointed friends, has made the boast "I am a Democrat" seem ridiculous. At a time when partnership should be wholly ignored in consideration of the nation's necessities and the sufferings of the people, he has done his best to arouse a partisan spirit and to obstruct democratic policy. He has done this by attacking the Administration has proved stronger than his patriotism and his public spirit.

It is to be regretted that Senator Hill did not use his ability and his popularity to impress upon his associates in the Senate the duty of immediate action on the tariff question as a public necessity, whatever differences of opinion might prevail in regard to details, and to remind them how deplorable it would be if Democratic pledges should be falsified by Democratic treachery, and if the good of the country should be sacrificed to the desire to gratify partisan malignity.

CHEAP COAL.

The high price of coal is a great hardship on the poor. "The World" insists that it is unnecessary and that a lower retail rate would accrue to the dealers a fair and remunerative profit.

In order to prove its contention in the best possible manner, "The World" has determined to go into the business for a brief period, not for profit, but for the benefit of the consumers who need coal. From now until May 1, "The World" will supply the best anthracite coal to the people of New York and Brooklyn in lots of one ton or more for $1.00 per ton of a full two thousand pounds. The dealers charge $2.50 for the same coal, so that the saving to the purchaser will be 50 cents a ton.

If the courts cannot protect the people from the evil effects of the monopoly "combine" of the coal barons and the railroad kings "The World" will see if public spirit and philanthropy can do more than the courts are capable of accomplishing.

TAMMANY WINS.

Ex-Speaker Stuyvesant proved his efficiency as a leader on the floor of the Assembly yesterday by killing the bill to empower the Mayor of New York to turn out the heads of all departments and appoint officers at pleasure.

The bill was supposed to be destined to enable a reform Mayor, if one should be elected this year, to change the political character of the departments, which now are all in Tammany hands.

But many people thought the bill a dangerous experiment, since it would throw all the big offices into the hands of the majority, and make bargains and trades more probable and easier than ever.

Besides, many people suggest that such a law would enable Tammany to make promises to the "reform" Democrats, who want office, and so bring them back into the Tammany fold.

Whoever may have thought of the merits of the bill, however, ex-Speaker Stuyvesant's shrewd tactics have beaten it for this session.

POOR LO GETS HIS LAZER.

The Indians can now have their beer. The Supreme Court has decided that lager is not a spirituous liquor and that it may be sold to the reservation Indians without violating any law. Young Man With-the-River-Aeroplane may now possess his foamier can in sweet content, and paperoses can have the "back" in and out of the corner cafe without fear of being poked up by a Gorry Society or doing violence to the excise regulations.

The annual green-corn dance of the Territory Indians having fallen into disuse, the reformed red man might now select Hook Beer Day for his yearly festivity. Hook Beer is a fine, delectable, healthful and non-intoxicating beverage, and while a skiff of whiskey would make an ordinary Indian want to chop off his grandmother's ears and fricassee them, a dozen or more skiffs of the Billy-goat brand would only incite him to scrub a few pale faces and get a new pair of leggings.

Beer is such a mild beverage that it is really a pity to see the majestic men of the forest reduced to the necessity of slaking their thirst with it. But if he can succeed in cutting down the superstructure of foam which the expert champagne makers on a slight foundation of lager he will not have to wear out as many pairs of moccasins journeying to and from the rattleskinner in which he is looking for his jug.

At this present writing the scheme of moving an "Industrial Army" 20,000 strong on Washington does not promise to meet with any brilliant success. Not only has nature been on a slight foundation of lager he will not have to wear out as many pairs of moccasins journeying to and from the rattleskinner in which he is looking for his jug.

DR. GRIFFIN ON CORBETT. BRILLIANT APRIL WEDDING.

Thinks the Latter Can Whip Peter Arthur O. Sherman and Miss Janet Jackson Without a Doubt.

Prizes for N. Y. A. C. Shooters—Other Sporting News.

When Dr. John W. Griffin examined Peter Jackson a few weeks ago, he gave it as his opinion that Peter would whip Corbett. Dr. E. Harrison Griffin, of 112 West Forty-fifth street, who is the Corbett family physician, thinks there isn't the slightest doubt that, in the event of a fight, Corbett will win. Dr. Griffin probably knows Corbett's physical and mental attributes as well as any other doctor in the city.

Corbett, when in training, gains weight and strength, and is a man who will gain weight without gaining fat. The reasons for this are, first, his diet is very plain, and secondly, he has a very good appetite. It is well known that he has a good appetite. His food is not only good, but it is all good to build up his muscles. He has a strong and quickness. He is doctored with his physician, and has indomitable will power. He is a very hard worker.

A Philadelphia dispatch says that Corbett, when in training, gains weight and strength, and is a man who will gain weight without gaining fat. The reasons for this are, first, his diet is very plain, and secondly, he has a very good appetite. It is well known that he has a good appetite. His food is not only good, but it is all good to build up his muscles. He has a strong and quickness. He is doctored with his physician, and has indomitable will power. He is a very hard worker.

The Shooting Committee of the New York Athletic Club when asked to bring about an increase of interest in this sport among the Club members this season, special attention was given to the problem of securing a prize for the winner of the annual shoot.
